LADY GRIZ PRESEASON NOTES

- Montana went 24-9 last season, the 30th 20-win season in 37 years under longtime head coach Robin Selvig. The Lady Griz won the Big Sky Conference regular-season championship with a 14-4 league record, hosted and won the Big Sky tournament and advanced to their 21st NCAA tournament. • Montana received a No. 16 seed to last spring's NCAA tournament and faced No. 1 seed Notre Dame on the Fighting Irish's home floor. Notre Dame, which lost the national championship game to Connecticut, defeated Montana 77-43. • Montana lost three starting seniors off last year's team: guard Kellie Rubel, the 2014-15 Big Sky Conference co-MVP; Carly Selvig, a two-time Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year; and Maggie Rickman, honorable mention All-Big Sky as a senior. • Montana's lone returning starters are senior guard McCalle Feller and junior forward Kayleigh Valley. Both were voted honorable mention All-Big Sky last season and preseason All-Big Sky this year. The other 11 players on the team have a total of three combined career starts. Six of the 13 players on the roster have not played in a college game. • The 2015-16 season is Robin Selvig's 38th year as coach of the Lady Griz and his 43rd year at Montana as either a player or coach at his alma mater. He enters the season with a record of 845-275, an average of more than 22 wins per year. • Selvig enters the season ranked No. 5 in career wins among active NCAA Division I coaches behind North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell (961 wins), Stanford's Tara VanDerveer (953), Rutgers' C. Vivian Stringer (952) and Connecticut's Geno Auriemma (917). ... • Selvig was named the 2014-15 Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year, his 21st conference coach of the year award.
